

Plot the values of quantities whose ratios are always the same (e.g., cost to the number of an item, feet to inches, circumference to diameter of a circle). Fit a line to the plot and understand that the slope of the line equals the quantities. 7AF3.4

84. The graph below shows Francine's electric bill for 4 different months. What is the price per kilowatt-hour of Francine's electricity?

- A $0.15
- B $0.30
- C $1.50
- D $6.67